Thank you for agreeing to be one of our reviewers. We are keen to ensure a high standard of submission for our conference while helping the authors improve their papers to the necessary quality. To this end, we would be grateful if you would provide constructive advice as to how they can make the paper more acceptable for presentation at the ESAFS 2024 Conference. The Conference Committee would therefore be grateful if you would complete the table and rate the paper on the issues described below. As with all blind reviewing any comments you make will be passed to the authors on an anonymous basis.

We would be thankful if you kindly return the duly completed "Reviewer Evaluation Form"

Abstract

The tittle should provide a concise statement of the contents with bold and Arial font 14 point. The main text, like the author names please use Times New Roman font, 14 point for the Author names and 12 point for the remainder of the abstract. You can either type or paste your texts into the abstract example below but please keep the page margins the same as what is set here (2.5 cm all round in one column). The paragraph should be justified (straight-edged) on both left and right. The abstract should be in a single paragraph using a single line spacing. The abstract submission should not be more than one page. The abstract deadline is October 30th, 2023. If you need to receive a formal acceptance of your abstract in order to be funded to attend the conference, please mention this in your e-mail when you submit your abstract and you will receive a prompt reply. We expect that there will be more abstracts submitted with preferences for oral presentation than what we can accommodate in the programme. We will inform those who submit their abstracts for oral presentation whether the paper is scheduled for an oral or a poster presentation and we aim to do so by November 15th, 2023. If you need to use an acronym, put the acronym in parentheses after the full term the first time you use the term. Please use metric system for basic units. The organizing committee reserves the right to edit abstracts for clarity or correctness of English but will consult the corresponding authors if any significant changes are needed. The abstract should contain the aim of the research, the main findings of the research project and a brief conclusion. Authors are asked to suggest not more than five key words in a sequence order and each keyword should be separated by a semi-colon. Keywords should be put after the abstract.

Key words: "insert 3 to 5 keywords here, each separated by a semi-colon"
